“ Lost of a Loved One

*The loss of a loved one is so hard to face.
You just want to hide,
go somewhere and escape!
But death is something we all must go through.
I know it's hard
when it's someone you loved and knew.
My little brother ( Jamal) once said living is hard, but dying is easy.
Just know now,
Stan the man is in a better place.
No more hurt or pain shall he face.
It seems unfair, and yes, this is true,
but he is in Heaven now watching over you!*

*God has called Stan the man home to rest!!
And he's being well taken care of by his mom, uncle Jessie, Gina, of course Jamal, and all the rest because God knows best!*

“ Stan and I met while we were both in the U.S. Army, many years ago. He is the most kindest friend, helpful, and very humble. We use to go bike riding at the parks because we both needed the exercise and it is more fun riding with a friend. I will miss Stan very much. I love you Stan, you are a comrade in arms to many and a true friend. Until we meet again, Ret. MSG Kim Jones
