

Mr. Steffen Shelby

January 30, 1980 - January 9, 2015

In Loving Memory Of Steffen Shelby:

Steffen Lamont Shelby was born January 30, 1980, to Janet Clemons and Sterling Shelby in Detroit, Michigan. He was the younger of two children. His oldest brother Colen, preceded him in death. Steffen was educated in the Detroit Public Schools system where he received his Certificate in Meat Cutting from Breithaupt.

At an early age, Steffen was diagnosed with schizophrenia. Even with that, he had a host of friends who loved him and gave him the nickname Hollywood "Wood," because of his manner and his smile. He was a kind and loving person who refused to let any challenge dim his bright and positive spirit.

Steffen loved various activities, especially if afterwards he could enjoy one of his mom's great meals. His favorite pastime was football, where he played with the Detroit Police Athletic League (PAL).

Though the joy of his life was his mother, he loved spending time with his dad, his other mother "Big Time" (Janice Dudley), and his children. His family and friends also had a special place in his heart, and he greeted everyone he met with a warm hello and a welcoming handshake.

Steffen was a loving son, grandson, brother, father, uncle, nephew and friend.

He believed in our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, giving of himself, and loving others unconditionally.

On Friday, January 9, Steffen made his transition.
