

Mrs. Sylvia Jean Holloway

October 1, 1937 - February 10, 2019

Her Story:

Sylvia Holloway was born in Columbus, Georgia to the late Beatrice Walker-Melbert and Nathaniel Holloway. The eldest child of ten Sylvia, aka “Jean/Jeanie,” at a very young age moved to Michigan and began her family. With two kids already, she met and married Alonzo Fleming; to this union five children were born.

Sylvia enjoyed being a homemaker and taking care of her children. In 1977, she started a career with the Detroit Public Schools system where she worked at for ten years retiring in 1987. Sylvia then moved to Arkansas in 1990 reuniting with her siblings. Sylvia’s hobbies included shopping, being with family, attending church where she enjoyed servicing the Lord and singing in the choir doing Gods work! She was a God fearing woman joining Mount Moriah Missionary Baptist Church in Arkansas under Reverend Vernon Moody.

Sylvia made her transition in Taylor, Michigan on February 10, 2019
