

Ms. Sylvia Ann Moore

October 27, 1961 - June 7, 2014

Celebrating The Life Of Sylvia Ann 'Pinkey' Moore:

Sylvia Ann Moore was born October 27, 1961 in Rome, Georgia to the late Flora Bee Moore and Hardy Stallings. Clyde Carter her stepfather was a intergal part of her life also. Sylvia attended the Georgia Public School System where she enjoyed a variety of sports and excelled in track. Sylvia really enjoyed hanging out with her best friends Angenette Pinkney and Felicia Riley.

In 1975 Sylvia moved to Detroit, MI to reside with her late aunt Glenda Hayes. After moving to Detroit, Sylvia met the Bargainer Family who introduced her to The New Starlight M.B.C under the leadership of the late Reverend C.L. Petty.

It was there where Sylvia met the love of her life Mr. Cornelius Bargainer.

To their union two children were born, her loving son the late DeAngelo Cornelius Bargainer and her "Ray of Sunshine" Kamilah Moore.

Sylvia was employed by Belfor Restoration Company where she enjoyed traveling and the everyday rhythm of working with her co-workers. After 20 years of service, Sylvia retired due to health reasons.

Another pastime of Sylvia's was playing cards, socializing with family and friends, laughing and creating everlasting memories (because we all knew that she created Selfies before they became popular!) and Pinkey's best saying was, "Where's my lip liner?" A lot of those memories were created with her sisters and aunts Carol, Moonie, Gail, Tracey, Shirley, Gale, Cora, Pam, Evette, Diane and Adrian.

Pinkey had a special place in her heart for children especially her grandson Abdallah Jr.

“ I'm sooooo sad to hear of your passing,my heart aches with sorrow. No one called us here in Dayton, Ohio to let us know you were gone..we didn't even know you were sick..Oh I'm so sad I want get to see your pretty face anymore...I've been trying to get in touch with you for the pass year,but to no avail..I didn't hear this news until the day of the service...Reminiscing on the good times we used to have in Rome,Ga when we were kids...I love you & gonna miss you very, very much!!!

P.S: I can't believe you're gone.....

Your Cousin, Kenny Moore!!
