“ Lord, You said in Your Word finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things. Tee brought so much joy to the people around her. She had a special love for my son Noah and she instilled love in him each moment she taught him while he attended DLA. Tee was genuinely a loving person. Lord, Keep our minds covered, and stayed on You because You're the only one who can carry us through and through. Tee will forever be in our hearts and will be truly missed.

“ Ms. T, my teaching assistant my friend. You were an amazing teacher. All the kids loved you. You came up with so many good activities and you loved to be silly with the kids. I look over now where you would sit with your group and I really miss you. I can still see you there. I can hear you talk. I hear you singing the song you came up with for the kids that will always be part of my songbook. Oh God I miss you so much. I know we will meet again in Heaven one day.

“ Selfless, welcoming, joyful, positive, encouraging , courageous, devoted, silly and supportive. just to start my list of things to describe my big sister or “My T” as I would call her. “Really gonna miss you.” We used to sing that song just to be silly at the end of one of favorite movies who would’ve ever imagine I’d be singing and listening to that in honor of you. I love you so much. I just know you’re up there singing dancing and humming. I can’t wait to meet again Gorgeous.
