“ Cousin I love you so much, I wish we had more time. You have made me realize how short and precious this life is. Well done sweetheart, you always wore a smile on your face, and what a beautiful smile it was. I know that you are at peace now and in the arms of our heavenly father. You will be missed by many. I smile at all the lives that you have touched. I will see you again one day. I love you so much. Shay

“ Where do I begin. It was an absolute pleasure to be apart of your life. Having met you when you were only 10, I knew you were something special. Even as a little girl, I could always count on you to help me with your little cousin's (especially that handful Kelis, lol), you had such a giving spirit and a beautiful personality. You were just gorgeous inside and out. I am just heart broken that I never got a chance to say good bye, but I know you are in a better place, making heaven a little bit brighter with that pretty smile. A selfless person always...you are my hero! Sorry I can't make it to your send off, but you will forever and always be in my heart!!!

To the family, may God's perfect peace rest in you and may Missy Moo's memories get you through. I'm so sorry I can't be there, but you all are sincerely in my thoughts and prayers...Love~Shanna

“ May the family of Ta'Keisha please accept my sincere sympathy for your loss. In the Bible at John 5:28,29 and Rev.21:4 we find the basis for the hope that soon God is going to resurrect our loved ones now sleeping in death, and that he will also rid the earth of all the causes we now have for pain and suffering. I hope that when reading these verses you will receive comfort, strength, and peace.
