

Mrs. Tammie Lee-Ann Reyes

September 11, 1964 - April 18, 2018

Celebrating The Life Of Tammie Lee-Ann Reyes:

Tammie Lee-Ann Reyes was born to the union of Ollie Ruth and Ralph Ranger Lee Willis in Bangor, Maine. She received Christ at an early age and continued walking in her faith throughout her life. Tammie and her family moved to Detroit, MI in 1972. She graduated from Benedictine High School in 1982. After high school she went to Eastern Michigan University where she majored in Logistics. Later, she joined the Air Force where she served 23 years and earned several awards and medals. She retired from the Air Force with the prestigious rank of Master Sergeant. Continuing with her mission to serve, she worked at the IRS and then the post office for 23 years. Tammie loved working at the post office and often commented that her job gave her joy!

Tammie was full of laughter. She loved to laugh and joke with family and friends. She was a true definition of a giver. She was always thinking of others and trying to meet their needs. She never met a stranger and would welcome anyone into her home for a delicious home cooked meal. She loved shopping and always looked good strutting in her high heels. Tammie was uplifting and encouraging to others regardless of how she actually felt. Above all she loved her son Eric and cherished her husband Melvin "Dwayne" to whom she married on June 25, 2011.

“ Tammie and i shared a bond as she was always there to encourage me during my late husband's struggle with graft vs host disease after his stem cell transplant. She was my hope when i thought all would fail. She told me to keeping praying. That was all we could do. Now she is gone. My heart breaks for Tammie's dear husband Melvin because i know this sorrow too well. Where is the hope?
