

Ms. Tamyra Evette King

February 29, 1972 - December 12, 2014

Going Home Celebration For Tamyra Evette King:

Tamyra Evette King was a special person from the very start of her life. She was a leap year baby born to Brenda and Beatrice King, Jr. (who both preceded her in death) on February 29, 1972. She brought pure joy to her parents, who affectionately called her 'Tammy.'

Tammy found employment with Damon Laboratories/Detroit Medical Center University laboratories from 1993 through 2012. While there, she proved to be a trustworthy employee. Although she was shy, Tammy was voted Chief Union Steward, representing the medical laboratory assistants under the Teamsters Union Local 283. She formed many friendships, and was loved by all who came into contact with her. Tammy was one of the sweetest and most lovable persons you could ever meet.

Tammy was blessed with one daughter, Amber Nicole Johnson. In turn, Amber was blessed with Tammy's only granddaughter, Angelique Ariana. She doted on both girls, and devoted both her life and love to them.

Tammy enjoyed several hobbies. One of which was the reality video game, IMVU. She was an aficionado playing this game, where countless players delighted in interacting with her. Tammy was an avid movie collector, where she could watch for hours. Like her family, she had a proficient ear for music.

You could catch her with earbuds at any time of the day.
