“ My prayers and condolences are given to you as you embark upon this day. I had the great pleasure of working with Coolaide and enjoyed our time together. Knowing that he touched thousands of people with his talent, I pray you have comfort in knowing that he put a smile on our face. He will be missed in the world of comedy. I am so thankful he had the opportunity to touch many lives across the globe. May God bring you comfort, grace and peace in knowing that the wonderful memories will be forever in our hearts. The thoughts of him will make us all smile. A good heart has stopped beating, a good soul ascended to heaven. May God give you strength. Words cannot describe what you are feeling. May the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, guard your hearts and mind in Christ Jesus. Philippians 4:7 Janel Pulley, JPulley Agency

“Coolaide's would have us to know his last request: "Please don't say that I gave up, just say that I gave in. Don't say I lost the battle, for it was God's war to lose or win. Please don't say how good I was, but that I did my best. Just say I tried to do what's right, to give the most I could, not less. Please don't give me wings and halos; that's for God to do. I want no more than I deserve, no extras, just my due....Please don't give me flowers or talk in real hushed tones. Don't be concerned about me now, I'm well with God, I've made it home. Don't talk about my illness, it's over and it's done. Just to see all my family's needs, especially the little ones. When you draw a picture of me, don't draw me as a saint. I've done some good, I've done some wrong, so use all your paint. Not just bright and light tones; use some gray and dark. In fact, don't put me down on canvas, paint me in your heart. Don't just remember good times, but remember all the bad. For life is full of many things, some happy and some sad. But if you must do something, I have but one request: Forgive me of the wrongs I've done, and with the love that's left, Thank God for my soul's resting. Thank God, for I've been blessed. Thank God for all who loved me. Praise God, who loved me best." Heaven has gained not only an Angel but a funny dude. May he keep smiles in your hearts. To family and friends I leave you with this scripture: "I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die." ST. “ My prayers to the family. I had the blessing of meeting him some years ago through my cousin "Mic Larry" at a comedy show. OMG!! I still remember laughing so hard I was crying that night. Years later he came to my home with a friend and walked in capping jokes on everyone there. HILARIOUS!! I'm like how do you dog me this is my house? In true Coolaide spirit, I was NOT exempt. The jokes got worst until I was once again laughing so hard I was crying. He will truly be missed. Gone but NEVER forgotten. I now reside in Texas but I am sending my love to everyone back home as you prepare to lay this "Detroit Gem" to rest.
