In Loving Memory Of

Tashara J. Phill-King was born on February 16, 1978 in Detroit, MI to Jesse Phill and the late Ola Mae Prentice Phill.

Tashara J. Phill-King was married to Chad King on July 5, 2002. To this union two children were born.

Tashara graduated from Henry Ford High School with honors and attended Everest University, earning her Bachelor of Science in Business Administration. She was an avid reader and movie watcher. In particular, she was an absolute fangirl for True Crime stories and shows. She also had a love for fashion and glam (Specifically her “Shoes and Purses”).

Tashara joined the church at an early age where she was a member of First Baptist Institutional Church.

Tashara was fearless and believed that the World was her runway. She had a caring personality, a fire for life, and an unapologetic love for her children and family. If Tashara counted you among those she loved, she made sure you knew it.

She leaves to cherish her memory: Her Husband Chad, two children (Zachary, and Zariah), Brother Jermaine (Denise), Father Jesse Phill, and her 2 cats. She also leaves many nephews, one niece, other relatives, and special friends.
