Tawana Y. Johnson was born on August 29, 1975, in Detroit, Michigan, to Robert and Sandra Johnson. As a trailblazer in entrepreneurship, she founded Results Business Solutions LLC, offering financial services and specializing in personal income taxes.

Tawana shared 13 years of marriage with Phil Lewis, a union blessed with the joy of raising one child together. Beyond her professional achievements, Tawana found joy in many passions, from cheering on sports teams to exploring true crime stories and staying informed on current events through CNN. However, her heart belonged to her family. As a proud and loving mother and a self-proclaimed "daddy's girl," she nurtured cherished bonds with her father, sons, and grandchildren.

On January 25, 2025, Tawana peacefully departed this life. She was preceded in death by her husband, Phil Lewis; her maternal and paternal grandmothers; her great-great-uncle Richard; her aunt Jackie; and her uncle Wesley. Tawana leaves behind a legacy of love, strength, and devotion.

“Tawana and I went on many Saturday morning hikes together in 2022. She was a wonderful friend to me when I was a new mom and would share advice and stories about how I was going to love being a “boy mom”. She was so proud of her sons and grandkids. I will miss our hikes and think of her whenever I’m on the trail at Cheatham Hill in Marietta, Ga. May peace be with her family.”
