

Ms. Teresa Lorraine Teague

January 24, 1964 - September 12, 2018

Celebrating The Life Of Teresa Lorraine Teague:

Teresa Lorraine Teague was born on January 24, 1964 in Washington, D.C. to the union of Otha and Gloria Teague. Teresa was the last addition to the Teague family, joining four other siblings.

Although Teresa was born with special needs she far exceeded the expectations doctors predicted for her life span, which was age 12.

At an early age Teresa was baptized and confirmed in the Catholic church. As a student of the Detroit Public School system, Teresa obtained additional life skills at the Wingert Trainable Center and graduated at the age of 26.

Teresa was an exceptional young lady and was known for her loving spirit, beautiful smile and her love for dance. Teresa even danced on the television show, The Scene a few times. Teresa loved music and her favorite artists were Michael Jackson, James Brown and Prince. Teresa also loved to sing and was a member of St. Leo's Choir. Her favorite hobbies were bowling and watching movies.
