“ As a little girl I grew up with my Aunt Rebecca Simpson which is Teds Mother. I can remember as if it was yesterday awaking to the smell of barbecue on the brick grill that had been handmade. My cousin Ted and family lived across the street from us and he would do the grilling for all the holidays. The smell of meat on the grill would wake me and the entire neighborhood!! It smelled delicious!! And tasted even better!! He and my Aunt would be up very early in the morning because there was so much grilling to be done. That is just one memory that I have of my 1st cousin. Ted will be sorely missed. No doubt I will think of him whenever I grill. Barbara, Jacinta, Regina and Andrea I thank you for sharing your husband and father with me. It really has meant more than you know.

*Blessings
