August 21, 1951 - June 9, 2023

In Loving Memory Of

Theodore M.L. Bell was born on August 21, 1951 in Detroit, Michigan to the late Roosevelt Bell and Bessie Harvey. Theodore accepted Christ at an early age and was the youngest of 12 siblings.

Theodore, affectionately called Thee or Ted, attended Cooley High School. After graduation, Thee enlisted in the United States Army, following his brothers that he admired and looked up to.

Theodore later worked for the City of Detroit Sanitation Department where he dedicated 25 years of service and retired in 2013.

As a lover of music, it was fitting that Theodore and his brothers sang as a Doo-wop group around Detroit, then later passed his love of music down to his children.

Everyone that knew Theodore knew that he loved to sing and listen to a diverse range of music and would not hesitate to ask a pretty lady to dance. Theodore was a Master Mason and belonged to the Most Worshipful King David Grand Lodge No. 45, he was distinguished for his zeal and fidelity to the craft.

After retirement, Theodore traveled around the world, including South Africa, Asia, Paris, and Amsterdam, taking full advantage of the privileges he afforded himself and was grateful for the experience. He possessed an insatiable curiosity about the world and was constantly seeking knowledge and expanding his horizons. He had a deep appreciation for nature and spent countless hours tending to his beloved garden.
