

Mrs. Theresa Abron

February 16, 1957 - April 10, 2024

Theresa Abron affectionately known as "Lil Tina/ Tina" was born February 16, 1957 in Detroit, Michigan to Willie Henry and Margarite King. She was the youngest of eight siblings. Her parents and six siblings preceded her in death, Bernice Jones, Willie Henry Jr., James, Willard Lee and Adam King. Besides, she experienced tremendous grief after the loss of her eldest son Lamar who passed at the tender age of eight years old as a result of a tragic car accident. God blessed her with a friend and companion in the person of Phillips Lee Abron that supported her through her grief and soon after became her life partner. They were married April 9, 1985 and were inseparable until her transition from this life. To this union two children were born a daughter Danaka Renee and Phillip Ladale.

Tina was educated in the Detroit Public Schools and graduated from Southeastern High School. She became an employee of Detroit Public Schools shortly after graduation and worked there 32 years until her retirement.

Tina was fun and loving; she loved music, dancing, her family and especially all the children. Her love was demonstrated in that as she assumed the role of mother for three generations in her family. She assumed roles of mother and grandmother for her beloved niece Patricia's children and grandchildren. Her benevolent demeanor led her to feed, house and help many family members, friends and neighbors.

Tina leaves to cherish her memories, her devoted husband of 38 years

Phillips Lee Abron; stepson Corey; daughter Danaka Renee; son Phillip Ladale and fiancé Kaitlyn; granddaughters Khailee Abron, DaJuana and Korihana Irvin and Lauren Spearman; two brothers Alfonza and Hosie King, many other nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. One special childhood friend Youvonnie Brown who supported Tina throughout life and her illness.
