Life Journey...

Thresa Evette Woods was blessed to receive her first breath of life on July 15, 1964 in Detroit, Michigan to the union of Jessie B. Woods and the late James C. Woods. When Thresa entered the world feet first, her mother Jessie knew she was destined to be an anointed and gifted strong woman.

Thresa was the youngest child out of seven siblings, where they gave her the nickname "Pluke."

Thresa accepted Christ at an early age in Detroit, Michigan. She also attended the Highland Park School System, where she obtained her certificate in the health care industry as a caregiver. Anyone that knows her, knew she had a soft heart for taking care of people, especially her mother and grandson, Mylan.

Thresa enjoyed some of the simplest things in life that kept her smiling, such as; playing cards, skating, listening to music, watching classic movies and cooking. Lets not forget, she was a no nonsense strong woman who always told her daughters, Tiffany and Teila, "if there is a will, there's a way."

On Saturday, June 10, 2017, God called Thresa's name, so she can be a servant in his Glorious Kingdom.
