“ I remember when I first met Tim my grandmother had passed and he came to the house. We were all admiring him and how shiny his shoes were. I mean that man had a shine on his shoes that made us proud. He was so warm and loving. We reconnected some years later at church when we were married with children as if no time had passed. Phyllis and the kids were just like him warm and loving. I will miss you Tim well done good and faithful servant. ❤️

“ I met the McKay's through working with their daughter Trinity at Mosaic Youth Theatre. Such a lovely family. In the brief time that I knew Mr. McKay, he made a lasting impression on me as a supportive, understanding, enthusiastic, and deeply loving and devoted father.

I know he will be profoundly missed.

All my love to the family.

“ My first conversation with Tim was at the McKay home (it was their annual back to school breakfast, I felt honored to be included). He was very honest and open, even sharing a testimony of his past with me, in hopes to help me not beat myself up on a choice I had made in my past. The support, love and encouragement from him, his Beautiful wife and kids will never be forgot! Definitely a family of royalty to me. Phyllis and kids I love you'll and you have my deepest sincere condolences.
