

Mrs. Tina Novene Bailey-Faison

November 14, 1956 - April 4, 2017

Celebrating The Life Of Tina Novene Bailey-Faison:

Tina Novene Bailey-Faison was born on November 14, 1956 to the late Bishop, Reverend James W. Bailey and the late Reverend Mother Mary L. Bailey-Suddeth. She was the youngest of 10 brothers and sisters and was always lovingly called "my baby sister."

Tina accepted Christ at an earlier age and was a past member of Triumph the Church of the New Age and Redeemed Missionary Baptist Church. She was educated in the Detroit School system and a graduate from Northwestern High School in Detroit and attended Ross Medical and Wayne Community College. She was joined in holy matrimony with Calvin J. Faison in 1981.

Tina worked in healthcare over 30 years as a Certified Nurse Assistant. She worked with Mount Carmel Hospital and more recently until she took ill, with MediLodge of Southfield. She was hardworking and dedicated to her patients and clients. She always advocated respect and compassion for all people.

Tina was fun loving and of no nonsense. She wasn't "fake" or put on "airs." Tina believed in being "real" and being herself. Either you liked it or you didn't. She was sincere, gave respect and expected respect. There was nothing she would not do for you, but don't make her mad. If you did, you would see the

"Tina Novena." She loved her children and grandchildren very, very much and it was nothing she wouldn't do for them. Tina loved eating out, collecting movies, taking trips and family reunions. She loved Motown and dancing and didn't mind doing the "Wobble Baby" and "Superman."

“ To my family,

As you know death is not the end nor the goal of life. Your mother, grandmother, sister, auntie, cousin and my cousin Tina is alive and well. Yet it is never pleasant to say good-by to one we love. I pray that God will strengthen you for the journey ahead.

*With much love,
Cousin Bonnie*
