

Mr. Tommie Lee Coleman

June 29, 1949 - July 8, 2014

The Life Of Tommie Colman:

Tommie Lee Coleman was born June 29, 1949 in Ippa Bena, Mississippi from the union of Rosie Lee and Marion Coleman, whom both preceded him in death. Also one sister Ora and one brother Marion preceded him in death.

Tommy was baptized at an early age and accepted Christ. He learned from his father the greatness of the Lord and many biblical stories. He loved to read the Bible and discuss the word with others.

He was employed by General Motors as a hi-lo driver, retiring in 2000 with 30 years of service.

Tommie loved to barbecue and often bragged about his homemade sauce. He enjoyed watching football and was an avid news watcher. His favorite pastime was reading the Bible and discussing the word with others. He always lectured to his nieces and nephews about education, working and the importance of family.

Tommie's daily prayer was, "O Father God I thank you for keeping my feet above ground, Amen."
