“ Hyron & Corey, I have so many wonderful memories of the fun times Toni and I shared over the past 43 years. Our giving a party together at Toni's house and for whatever reason, being totally selective about invitees, and as a result no one came. (lol) Once when we were much younger, we began talking on the phone on a Friday evening and talked until the next day. Unbelievable. However, my most treasured memories are our decade long discussions about our children. I will realllllly miss sharing my stories of children and grands and hearing Toni's stories of her boys and grands. God bless you both, your children and family!
