

Mr. Tony Dwayne Chambliss

July 14, 1964 - February 11, 2024

Tony Dwayne Chambliss was born July 14, 1964, to the union of Prentice and Eddie Chambliss in Strong, Arkansas. Tony was the oldest of three children.

Tony had a personal relationship with God. He received his primary education from the Detroit Public School system. As a result of his love of people and his outgoing personality, he was well known throughout the city, if you know, you know.

Tony not only had a great love for family but a great love of people and anyone who knew him, knew he would talk to anyone willing to listen. He loved to entertain and show his family and friends a good time.

Tony overcame many health challenges but was tired and unable to weather his last storm and was called home by the Lord on February 11, 2024. He was especially thankful for his mother Eddie Jo and sister Teresa for always being there for him.

Tony was preceded in death by his father, Prentice Leon Chambliss, and brother, Terry Leroy Chambliss. He leaves to cherish his memory: seven children, Antoine Harris (LaKesha), Trevor Hart, TaMia McMurray, Kenneth McCollum, Christopher Thomas, Janine Thomas, and Darell Thomas; two sisters, Teresa Chambliss (James) and Shantae Thomas (Leo); three brothers, Johnny King, Ernest Chambliss and Bryan Chambliss; three aunts, Yvonne Creer, Barbara Thrower and Earline Thompson; two special friends, Ivon McCollum and Connie Hand; a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. Tanai and Tre'von held a special bond with their uncle.
