In Loving Memory of

Tony Evans was born on October 20, 1956 in Beaver, Pennsylvania to the union of Robert and Helen Evans.

Tony Evans departed this life on January 9, 2024 at Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit.

Tony attended Ecorse High School where he graduated in 1975. Tony worked several jobs up until he retired from the Metropolitan Airport.

Tony found his faith to the Nation of Yahweh in 1985.

Tony's strong passions were God first, reading drawing, riding his bike, and staying in shape.

As most of us know, when Tony set out to accomplish something, he would master it. Before departing this life, Tony was able to finish writing one book on his Hebrew name and was working on a second book and it filled him with so much joy.

Tony was very soft spoken and well mannered. Tony loved his family. To know Tony was to love him. In that, he greeted everyone with his illuminating smile and magnetic personality.
