

Mrs. Torrese Monique Burgess

June 21, 1986 - December 26, 2013

The strongest people are not those who show strength in front of us, but those whose battles we know nothing about -unknown

Torrese, affectionately called Torrie and Tee was born on June 21, 1986 in Detroit, Michigan. Terry V. Brown and Lisa Stalling-Green were the parents blessed with Torrese.

Torrese was educated in the Detroit Public Schools system; a graduate of John H. Pershing High School. She was currently enrolled and graduating from Dorsey Career School majoring in Medical Administration and Billing.

My Good Days outweigh my Bad Days, I won't Complain

Torrese's work ethic derived from a family of hard workers. Her concern for assisting those who could not help themselves was prominent. She worked at Primary Care Office as a Medical Assistant and the last few years at Innovative Lifestyle Inc. in Clarkston, MI as a direct care worker. Her co-workers would commend her compassion and strength to help others in spite of her own health challenges with Lupus. She was also commended for her creativity and keen organization skills.

Love is patient, love is kind. 1 Corinthians 13:14

Torrese married the love of her life, Courtney J. Burgess in June 2009. Her vibrant personality and smile was a beacon of light to everyone she encountered. She remained a consistent source of strength for her family and friends.

Torrese loved her family and her two dogs, "Norman and Precious." Her caring nature will truly be missed by all of us. On Thursday night, December 26, 2013, God commanded the angels to bring Torrese home to rest.

Take me to the King, I don't have much to bring

“ My dear Torrese it's still hard to believe you've been fine this long but I know you're with me in spirit, I feel your presence everyday and know you watch over me. Thank you Torrie for being you, for never changing who you were and what you believed in, you were strong and unwaivering and I will always cherish the months we spent with one another. I'll see you again one day. R.I.P. my love.

“ Words can't express the pain that I know we all are going through. I still can't believe that I will never see you again or get another text from you, I never thought that our last text would be Christmas and all I have left is memories. Thanks for being apart of my kids and my life. I pray that God gives your mother and sister(s) strength they need to get through this trying time. You made an impact on so many people lives and I will forever love you!!!!

“Dear Lisa and Family,

I know that no words can take away the pain of losing a love one but just that God is with you; God is your keeper and healer. Praying that God will grant peace to bring comfort, courage to face the days ahead and loving memories to forever hold in your hearts. May you be uplifted through the outpouring of the holy spirit, love and support that is surrounding you.

I know its hard to understand the order in which God chooses to take his angels but just know that God does not make mistakes. If God brings you to it he will bring you through it. God has already provided grace and healing to make your burden lighter. Cast your cares upon the Lord.

I will continue to lift you and your family up in prayers. I love you.

Sincerely,

“ I am not there

*Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there. I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the snow on the mountain's rim,
I am the laughter in children's eyes,
I am the sand at the water's edge,
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle Autumn rain,
When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight,
I am the star that shines at night,
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there, I did not die.*
