“ Sylvia I am so sorry for your lost, I know how much you love your children and that you would never do anything to jeopardize their safety, it a shame that babies had to lose their lives for the city to decide to assist families during the winter. But know that they are with God now and he is going to take great care of them. And when you feel that breeze around you know that God has given you 3 beautiful guardian angels. I love you Syl and wish I could have been there to help you. Call me if you need anything and I promise I'll do my best to help..##imported-begin##Janise Honeycutt##imported-end##

“ To the Young Family: May I first of all offer my deepest heartfelt condolences on the death of your three precious babies: Tra'Von, Fantasia and Salena. I know your heart is breaking, but please do not blame yourself. The Bible teaches us that sometimes in this life, this system of things, we will experience unexpected and sometimes very devastating things. It says, in part, at Ecclesiastes 9:11 that...'time and unforeseen occurrence befall them all.'" Truly, this was not something you could have foreseen. Also, the Bible book of James, chapter 4, verse 14 teaches us (in part)..."you do not know what your life will be tomorrow." But, death, however it comes, at any time or any age is an enemy of mankind because it robs us of those whom we love so very dearly. Our Loving Creator knows this and has, thankfully, promised to destroy death forever! (1Cor.15:26). Jehovah is the Source of Life...not death! (Psalm 36:9). Life, as it is now...today...is not what He intended. Everything beautiful comes from Him (James 1:17) Death is not beautiful and therefore does not originate with God. (Hebrews 2:14). Our Loving God has already made provisions to correct this issue and promises a resurrection for all those who have died (Acts 24:15). And, He also promises that soon "He will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death (no matter the cause) will be no more, neither mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore."(Revelation 21:4). Yes, those promises are yet to be fulfilled, but it won't be long now (Revelation 21:5). Jehovah yearns to restore to life all who have died, including Tra'Von, Fantasia and Selena (Job 14:14,15). Until then, they sleep in His memory awaiting His call (John 5:28,29; John 11:11-14). May these Scriptural Truths bring you much comfort in the days ahead and, in time, help to make your present pain a little easier to bear. Rest assured God knows and understands and feels your pain. He cares very deeply for you (1Peter 5:7). That's why He is determined to fulfill all that he has promised to do. He will not fail you because He cannot lie (Titus 1:2) My Deepest Sympathy.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

“ To The Young Family,

Words are hard to express but please know that my heart and prayers are with you during your great loss of these precious children, the loss of your home, and the injuries your other surviving children sustained. May God continue to strengthen and bless your souls.

Please rest assured that God will sustain your every need and he will be with you always. Your angels are smiling down on you and their smiles and spirits will live on forever.

To your heroic sons who risked their lives to save their siblings, look to God for your strength and power because it is God who saved you and empowered you to do what you did.

God Bless, ##imported-begin##Rosalind A. May##imported-end##

“ Sylvia I just want to say that I will be praying for you and your children. My heart breaks everytime I hear the news mention your loss. I pray that in time you as well as your oldest child will forgive yourself. Please don't think that you caused this. I think that your oldest son is a hero for trying to help his siblings. May they rest in peace.##imported-begin##stephanie##imported-end##
