“ To my sister and my niece. I miss you so much Tracy, I think about you and Ashton daily. It is not fair how you two were taken from me and mom. I know that vengeance shall be the Lord's and your killer will suffer all the days of his miserable life. I pray that you and Ashton are always together in God's heavenly gates. I wish that I could hear your voice one more time, hug you tighter, hold on to you and never let you go. You are not only my sister but my friend and I just miss you so much. I wish I could have had the chance to hold Ashton and give her all the hugs and kisses in the world. I love you both and I pray that you are at peace and resting well. Everyday is still a challenge for me...but God. Until we meet again my dear sister. I love you always. I love you always. Sending hugs and kisses to heaven.

-Always & Forever Your Sister,

“ Tracy,
I miss you dearly and feel so grateful to have known you and for you to work on my team as a great asset.

My heart goes out to the Anderson family and my prayers will continue to be with you even after every card or visit. We are all sharing this grief and has had this beautifully bloomed flower picked to soon from our garden of life. May God embrace her.

“ My prayer for the family is that your hearts are comforted and that you find greater meaning and purpose from the loss of your loved one. Please be reminded that long after everyone else is gone, God will remain. He will never leave, fail, or forget you...never! I share your suffering and will continue in prayer on your behalf for as long as God's spirit keeps you in my memory.

*Psalm 34:17-19
New International Version (NIV)
17 The righteous cry out, and the LORD hears them;
he delivers them from all their troubles.
18 The LORD is close to the brokenhearted
and saves those who are crushed in spirit.
19 The righteous person may have many troubles,
but the LORD delivers him from them all;*
