

Mr. Tracy Ray Buggs

January 24, 1993 - September 25, 2017

Going Home Celebration For Tracy Ray Buggs:

Tracy Ray Buggs, Jr. was born on January 24, 1993 in Detroit, MI to Frederika Hope Robinson and Tracy Ray Buggs, Sr. Tracy was affectionately known by his family as TJ. He was a happy go-lucky child that always had a smile. Tracy accepted Christ at an early age, at the Detroit Northwest S.D.A. Church where he was baptized at age 7.

He attended Peterson-Warren Academy where he participated in gymnastics, basketball, school plays, and choir. He graduated with honors in 2011. After graduation, he attended Eastern Michigan University where he studied psychology as his major. He was active in campus life performing in plays and various university events.

Tracy loved the performing arts. He had a love and talent for creating and producing music. Many knew Tracy by his artist name, 1440ZUU. The meaning of his artist name according to Tracy, "In every day, there are 1,440 minutes. That means we have 1,440 daily opportunities to make a positive impact." Tracy was very serious and passionate about his artistry and loved to perform his music.

Tracy was kind, supportive, humorous, and always willing to lend a helping hand. He was also head-strong, and once he made up his mind and had an opinion, no one could change it. Tracy loved family and friends, and they loved him too.
