

Mr. Tyreese Brandon Mapp

May 29, 1976 - February 9, 2025

Tyreese Brandon Moses Mapp, also known as “T Bone”, was called home to be with the Lord on Sunday, February 9, 2025. Tyreese was born May 29, 1976, in Detroit, Michigan. Tyreese was the beloved son of Jerry Moses and Felicia Mapp, her one and only child. Though his time here was brief, his presence was larger than life, leaving behind a legacy of love, laughter, and unforgettable memories.

Tyreese was preceded in death by his father, Jerry, and his brothers, Marice (Moe) and Jamal. He leaves behind a loving family to cherish his memory: his mother, Felicia, his wife, Danielle, his children, Tyreese Jr. (TJ) and Ciara, his brothers, Jerry Jr. (Jay) and Terrance (Roc), and his sisters, Chardia and Serena, two god sisters Tanisha (Ladonna) and Bonita (Coco).

A Life Full of Love and Adventure

Tyreese spent his early years in Detroit, surrounded by family and friends who shaped him into the charismatic and caring man he became. He later moved to Florida, where fate reconnected him with one of his high school sweethearts, Danielle. Their love story was one of dedication, joy, and adventure. On April 12, 2012, they married, building a life full of love, hard work, and travel. Together, they explored the world, making lasting memories wherever they went.

In Florida, Tyreese pursued his passions and built a successful career. He attended barber college, managed several auto parts stores, and eventually found his niche in the construction and paint industry. His coworkers admired him not just for his work ethic but for the warmth and humor he brought into the workplace.

The Life of Every Party

Tyreese was the kind of person who could light up any room. He was the life of the party, always the first to start karaoke, make a joke, or get everyone on the dance floor. He loved hanging out with one of his closest friends, Roach, and enjoyed nights out, whether at a club or simply sharing drinks and laughter.

At home, he loved relaxing and grilling, making sure his family and friends were felt welcomed, well-fed and having a good time. Some of his best moments were spent on the beach with his wife, soaking in the sun and the simple joys of life. No matter where he was, Tyreese made sure the people around him felt his love, energy, and kindness.

A Devoted Son, Husband, and Father

Above all else, Tyreese cherished his mother, Felicia, and made frequent trips back to Detroit to visit her. His love for his family was unwavering, and he was a dedicated husband and a proud father to TJ and Ciara, always making sure they knew how much he loved them.

Tyreese's presence will be deeply missed, but his spirit will live on in the laughter, love, and unforgettable memories he gave to us all. Though he is no longer here in body, his soul will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.

Rest in peace, Tyreese. Your light will never fade.

“ He was always happy to see his family enjoyed taking pictures when you seen him to capture the moments he was around you. if I knew the last time I seen you that it was going to be my last I would've stayed longer or came around more often. we where only 2 hours a way from each other. I say this to say cherish every moment because you never know when it will be your last. Gone but never forgotten love always. 🕊️🕊️🕊️🙏🙏🙏
