

Mr. Tyrone Frederick Sherman

April 26, 1947 - August 9, 2018

Celebrating The Life Of Tyrone Sherman:

Tyrone Sherman was born in Detroit, Michigan on April 26, 1947 to W. F. Sherman and Margaret White-Sherman. He was the oldest of three children born to this union. His parents and sister preceded him in death.

Tyrone attended Detroit Public Schools and graduated from Central High School. Tyrone completed four years in the United States Vietnam War. He was employed by Ford Motor Company for over 30 years.

He met and married Elaine DeFile. Together, they raised three children: Shaun, Shannon and Sharian Sherman.

Tyrone enjoyed all sports, but his favorite pastime was bowling. He bowled in as many as three leagues at one time. He was left handed and could send that ball for a strike like you wouldn't believe! He has many trophies to prove it. He also loved playing cards.

In 1983 Tyrone married Robbie Cash and together they raised five children: Makeisha, Shannon, Shermaine, Jay and Taron. During their union they loved traveling on cruises, in particular and shared many lasting memories at sea.

“ Tyrone was a 2nd cousin who loved family, much like his father W.F. Sherman. I remember the bowling stories, the cruises he and wife Robbie took, and the trips back to his father's birth place, Monroe, La. He was quiet, steady, dependable, hard working, and soft spoken. He even allowed us to tease him about his name and the song about 'Tyrone' that in truth had no resemblance to he (LoL). Like his father, he had a gruffness about him but was like his father, a real teddy bear. My thoughts are with his brother, Lenny, the kids, and the other wider family members in Detroit.

“ Dear family just want to share a few words with you about the long connection Tyrone and I had as first cousins. We were in touch daily and shared many wonderful memories about our family and hopes that he could visit me when he healed. God however saw fit to bring him home and he is now resting in peace with no pain and I look forward to seeing him again in his glorified body and hope that we are able to stick together and continue to share and love one another.

Peace and Love to all.
