I was so sorry to hear about the passing of Val. We had such good times as young adults hanging out back in the day. May God bless your family in this time of sorrow and may you rest in peace until you meet them again.

“ As a kid I used to love going over to Auntie Val's house, it was always fun! She is my cousin but I've always called her Auntie Val. I am going to miss her. I didn't get a chance to say good bye, so right now I'll just say see you later and by the will of God we see each other again in paradise. Rest peacefully beautiful.
