“ I loved her because she believed in me and inspired me to be a strong hard working woman who loved her family . She also trusted me with car and gave me a place for my child and I to be able to come to and not be judged. I know that she is going to miss the rest of the family but she is at peace with her mother and father but I know she will always be looking down upon her family and friends and watching over them . Until I see you again I'm going to always keep your memory alive because loveded you Valerie 🙏❤️😔 Love you 4 Life Stephanie
