

Mrs. Velvet Louise Lind

July 25, 1947 - March 28, 2014

Velvet was born July 25, 1947 in Sardis, Georgia to the late William Henry McNeal and Daisy May McNeal. She was the second eldest of nine siblings born to this union (two of which, Lannis and James, preceded her in death). She was educated in Augusta, Georgia school system until she became proud alumni in 1965 of Lucy Laney.

Velvet accepted Christ at an early age. In the summer of 1970, summer love bloomed when she crossed paths with her high school classmate James Lind and shortly after they became united as one. Their love for each other produced three children Wendell, Wendy and Antwann (who preceded her in death).

During her life, Velvet was very passionate about her work as a Substance Abuse Analyst. She began her training with HISTA in 1991 and worked faithfully with them until her retirement in July 2009. She was dedicated to taking care of her husband and family and worked diligently in various church ministries where she was a faithful member for over 37 years at Twelfth Street Missionary Baptist Church.

Of all of her activities, Velvet's favorite pastime was being a "Hostess with the Mostess." She loved to decorate and bring out the best in her environment by adding life, energy and perfection wherever she went. Velvet was an example of beauty, grace, and elegance. But most of all, she was a lady.
