

Mr. Vernon R. Hollis

April 21, 1961 - September 2, 2018

Celebrating The Life Of Vernon Robert Lee Hollis:

Vernon Robert Lee Hollis (Renard) was born on April 21, 1961 to the late Mattie Lou Hollis and Robert Beard. Vernon was the oldest child of Mattie and the late William L. Christmas (stepfather).

He was raised by his belated grandparents Ada Mae and Rufus Reid until age five. His stepfather William played a major role in his life.

Vernon confessed his devotion to Christ at an early age. He attended Detroit Public Schools. He graduated from St. Martin DePorres High School and went to Fisk University on a basketball scholarship. Vernon loved to play basketball. He enjoyed music, jazz was his favorite. He liked art, having long conversations and being with family and friends. He worked as a mentor and a guidance counselor. Vernon did not have any children of his own, he played a major role to many other especially his nieces and nephews. He will be missed truly and deeply, gone way too soon, he will forever be loved.

Vernon departed this life on September 2, 2018.
