

Ms. Veronica Louise Woody

August 7, 1964 - January 8, 2014

The Journey Of Veronica L. Woody:

Veronica L. Woody, better known as Pinky, was born in Detroit, Michigan on August 7, 1964 to the union of John David Woody Sr. and Doris Ann Woody. Pinky was the fourth oldest of seven children. She has four brothers: Charles, Michael, Eric and John Jr. and two sisters, LaJuana and Yvonne.

Pinky found and accepted Christ into her life at a young age. She was baptized at Greater Grace Temple Church here in Detroit, Michigan and was recently attending Solid Rock Church here in Detroit with her sister Yvonne. Anyone who knew Pinky, knew that she was a true believer in the Lord. She walked by faith not by sight. Pinky had a heart of gold and was willing to help anyone who needed a helping hand.

Pinky was educated through the Detroit Public Schools where she went on to graduate from Cody High School in 1982. In July of 1983, a week before her 20th birthday, she gave birth to her beautiful baby girl Tiffany Ann Lee.

Pinky was employed by EDS, and later on became an employee of Chrysler Co. where she remained until she was called home. Pinky enjoyed playing softball and shopping. She played softball while in high school and also in a league for the Detroit Axle Plant.
