

Mr. Victor Copeland

December 3, 1957 - August 30, 2018

Reflections of Life:

Victor Copeland was born on December 3, 1958 to Virginia and Bobby Hall. He joined siblings, Janie Hall, Viola Hall (Bryant), Jerry Hall, Yvonne Hall, Clifford Hall, Denise Hall (Woods) and Sussie Hall.

When he was a young child, he was adopted by Rev. Ned and Rochell Copeland, who lovingly raised him. He was later joined by siblings, Fred Copeland Jr., Mable Copeland (Blackshear), Marva Copeland, Willie Lee Copeland and Josephine Copeland.

Victor was educated in Detroit Public Schools. One of his most favorite hobbies was singing in the Thomas M. Cooley Chorus. He may have missed class, but never a rehearsal. He later formed a gospel quartet with C. L. Harris, Robert Harris and his cousin and dear friend, Primus King. Toward the end of his life, he would sing at the homeless luncheons at Burnette Baptist Church.

On October 20, 1984, Victor married Clarice Robinson, and to this union one beautiful daughter was born, Naketa Shané Copeland.

Victor loved fishing, playing pool and bowling. He was a member of the Fantastics Bowling Club. Victor was also a great and adventurous cook. He'd cook rabbit, turtle, raccoon, almost anything. One of his specialities was fried green tomatoes.

Victor's charming and fun-filled personality will be missed.
