Celebrating The Life Victoria A. Clay

Victoria Annette Clay was born October 6, 1954 in Detroit, Michigan to the union of the late Louie L. Clay and Virginia Clay. Victoria or Vickie as she was called, was the middle daughter of the five daughters born to this loving couple. Her two elder sisters, Shirley Barnes and Darlene Williams preceded her in death.

Vickie accepted Christ at an early age, when she joined Hope Lutheran Church. She attended public schools, Tappan Junior High, Mackenzie and Cody High.

Vickie went to work at Henry Ford Hospital for some number of years, until she went to Louisiana, where she met and married George Jenkins, they divorced shortly after. She came back to Detroit, she stayed a while until the road was calling her again. Vickie went to Vicksburg, Mississippi, where she married Willie Bell and they divorced shortly after. While she was there she helped to care for her late aunt, Mrs. Margaret Franklin.

Vickie loved to cook and have people over to eat, she liked to dance or at least try to dance.

Vickie lost her battle with renal failure on Monday, November 28, 2016.
