

Mrs. Viola Edmonds

December 31, 1934 - November 2, 2014

Celebrating The Life Of Viola Edmonds:

Viola McFolley was born in the city of Omaha, Georgia on December 31, 1934 to Addie McFolley and Fletcher Davis (both preceded her in death). She had one sibling, brother Eddie Jackson who also preceded her in death. Viola passed away on November 2, 2014.

Growing up in Omaha, Georgia, she attended and graduated from Lumpkin Senior High School. Viola was quite active in the small city of Omaha but she always looked for other opportunities. Later, she decided to move to Detroit, Michigan. In Detroit, she met and married Eddie Edmonds. In their union together they had eight children, one preceded her in death.

Viola loved the Lord and loved attending church. For many years she was an active member and senior usher of Mt. Abarim Missionary Baptist Church. Later she became a member of Faithful Mount Triumph Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Henry Timmons. She loved gospel music and some of her favorite gospel groups, the Three Blind Boys and The Soul Stirrers. Viola had many activities but her favorites were traveling with her friends and watching her soap operas.
