

Mrs. Viola Stowers

February 7, 1919 - May 1, 2013

Her Journey:

Mrs. Viola Stowers was born to the late Willie Mae Harper on February 7, 1919 in Hartwell, Georgia. She was the youngest of three children (Susie Mae Easter and John Henry), who both preceded her in death. She accepted Christ at an early age and joined St. Jean Methodist Church in Hartwell, Georgia.

Viola married the late Napoleon Stowers in May of 1939. To this union four children were born.

Viola and Napoleon moved to Detroit in 1941. Viola worked at the Budd Company, as a cook, she was employed there for several years. She also worked as a cook at Children's Hospital of Michigan. Viola was a special person who was feisty and the pillar of the family.
