“ Disciple Ginni Winters was an amazing woman of God. She tried with enthusiasm to share the Word of God with others. Her kindness was unparalleled. I know that my sister in Christ is resting and rejoicing in heaven. Peace & Sympathy to her loving family.

“Ginni was an extraordinary woman of God, who was graced with wisdom, power, and strength to do a work in the earth that promoted change. She worked passionately guiding us through provoking student achievement and race conversations in the Willow Run School District and Plymouth Canton Community Schools. Her presence was striking - with keen intelligence shining through kind eyes that saw the potential in everyone she met. Though soft-spoken, her words carried weight - each one chosen intentionally to uplift and empower those around her. Ginni's intellectual giftedness was evident, but she wore it humbly, using her knowledge not to lord over others but to serve them. She had a unique ability to bring out the best in people. Her gentle encouragement could coax even the most reluctant individuals to reach beyond what they thought possible for themselves. She led many into a deeper commitment to serve others without judgment, modeling true servant leadership.

“Ginnie came to our school a few years ago to present during our school improvement professional development. She was a ray of sunshine, definitely someone you don't forget. She made a big impact on our school and district. She's leaving quite a legacy. Her talents and gifts did not go unnoticed. Prayers to friends and family. Hugs.

“Ms. Virginia embodied a truly beautiful spirit. Throughout my eight years in the Van Buren Public Schools district, she remained a cherished presence. Her facilitation of diversity trainings was always a highlight, blending humor with a deep-seated passion for inclusivity. Even after my transition to P-CCS, it was a heartwarming surprise to find her continuing to support our educational community in her unique way. Reconnecting with her brought me immense joy. Ms. Winters emanated warmth and positivity wherever she went, and her absence will be keenly felt. May her family find solace and strength in the love she shared with them. -S. Pettway”

“ The fist time I met Ginni was about 10 yrs ago at a scrapboking store. She sat down across from me and said a big hello. It was the beginning of a wonderful friendship. She became a mentor in my spiritual journey. I loved her laughter and intelligence. We called ourselves the scrappin' sisters. I will always remember her and be thankful the Lord brought her into my life.
