

Mrs Virginia Sanders

September 7, 1932 - June 1, 2022

In Loving Memory Of

Virginia Sanders was born on September 7, 1932 to the proud parents Etheridge and Lula Bell Brown of Shelby County, Tennessee. She was the seventh of eleven children. She graduated from Barnett High School in 1953.

Virginia accepted Christ at an early age and faithfully served as a choir member and usher at Hammond Grove Baptist Church until relocating to Detroit, MI in 1954. On December 31, 1955 she married Lawrence C. Sanders, who preceded her in death. They had three children: Ezra Charles, who also preceded her in death, Maurice, LeLisa and one adopted daughter, Jean.

She visited many churches before joining Morning View Missionary Baptist Church. She was a member there until she joined Springhill Baptist Church in August of 1991, where she served as an usher.

Virginia worked as a payroll clerk at both Superior Linen and Cadillac Overall. She retired and later worked for the school system as a server in the cafeteria. In addition, she became an Eastern Star with the St. Agnes Chapter 28 on February 23, 1982. She was the Worthy Patron for her chapter during the 1991-1992 year.

Virginia enjoyed working in her vegetable garden, watching soap operas and the Detroit Lions, Pistons, and Tigers. She absolutely loved working on puzzles.
