

Mrs. Virginia Pauline Wheeler

November 8, 1950 - May 11, 2020

No obituary found for this tribute.

Cemetery Details

Woodmere Cemetery

9400 W. Fort St.
Detroit, MI 48209

Tribute Wall

“ Mrs. Virginia Pauline Wheeler

January 21, 2023 at 09:34 PM

“ There are no words to express the sorrow in our hearts. Please accept our deepest sympathy. In just a little while all of the pain and sorrow that we feel from the death of our love ones will cease and be replaced with joy, because the former things have passed away. Thinking of you all.

Evans family - May 21, 2020 at 05:24 AM

DW

“ To my nephew, Lamar, and niece, Jennifer.

May God comfort you in the loss of your dear mother, (my sister-in-law).

When I was ten years old, I remember the numerous times Virginia let me spend the weekend. I was especially proud to be an aunt, for the first time, at such a young age, since Lamar was my first nephew. What warms my heart most is how Virginia was always so genuinely authentic, kind, and sweet. Although, at such a young age I was leery of pet animals, I still pleaded to visit so that I could hold baby Lamar. On one particular occasion, while I was visiting over the weekend, the cat sneaked up and scratched me on numerous occasions throughout the weekend (it was an activity of fun and delight for the cat, that enjoyed catching 'anyone' off guard, when you least expected.

Jennifer and Lamar, it is difficult to lose such a significant person in your life. Give yourself time to reflect and grieve, and I pray that you feel God wrapping His loving arms around you, always, and especially now and/or whenever you feel pain. Keep your mother's memories close, remember the special times. and joy you shared. You will miss her. Cherish her memory. Be good, and love yourselves. Lamar, and Jennifer, I am proud of you both. We are here for you.

Virginia, may you rest in peace.

Love,

Auntie Eveldora (Ruth) and Uncle Donald

Dr. Eveldora Wheeler - May 19, 2020 at 04:58 PM

DW

“ To my nephew, Lamar and niece, Jennifer.

May God comfort you in the loss of your dear mother, and my sister-in-law.

When I was ten years old, I remember the numerous times Virginia let me spend the weekend. What I remember best is how she was always so genuinely kind and sweet. Although, at such a young age I was leery of all pet animals, I still pleaded to visit so that I could hold Lamar (since he was my first nephew). On one particular occasion, I was visiting over the weekend, Virginia had a cat that delighted in sneaking up and scratching you when you least expected.

For the first time,, I was especially proud to be a little ten year old aunt. Lamar was my first nephew. Lamar, you are a exceptional man, I am certain your mother deeply loved you and and Jennifer, and the special relationship you shared.

Jennifer and Lamar, it is difficult to lose such a significant person in your life. Give yourself time to reflect and grieve. Keep her memories close, let them bring you joy, as you cherish your mother's memory.

Virginia may you rest in peace.

Love,

Eveldora and Donald

Dr. Eveldora Wheeler - May 19, 2020 at 04:35 PM