Celebrating The Life Of Virnester Lewis Durr

Virnester Lewis was born April 6, 1920 in Eutaw, Alabama, the only child of parents Alice and Arthur Lewis, who both preceded her in death.

Virnester was educated in Birmingham graduating from Industrial High School (now Parker).

Virnester was married at a young age to Jerry Warren. From this marriage three children were born, LaGloria, Wyma, and Jerry Jr. (Wyma and Jerry Jr. preceded her in death.)

Virnester later moved to Detroit, MI where she married Golden Durr. From this union two sons were born, Golden Jr. and Stanley.

While in Detroit, Virnester began her career as a nurse aide at Harper Hospital. She had a very successful career in the ever evolving health care field for over thirty years.

Virnester affectionately called "Bunsey" joined St. John Christian Methodist Episcopal Church where her children were baptized and she would contribute to projects the Missionary Society was participating in.

Virnester loved to travel and shop. She had a special account at the Harper

Hospital Gift Shop. She was a very elegant dresser, and a friend to so many.
