“ So very sorry to hear of Walters sudden passing. Walt was one of Slauson’s “Cellar Dwellers” the AM coffee and lunch clutch that met in the wood shop office for banter and laughter Barb, Judy, John S., John B, Walt, Jim , Tim and who ever came down to Slauson’s lower level. Walters insights and sense of humor helped make teaching at Slauson more fun and enjoyable for all of us. For a time I also taught American History and Walter and I were Slauson American History department. During that time Walt and I spent a lot of time discussing program and teaching methods. The knowledge, skills, insights and friendship Walter shared with me helped to make me a better educator and I will remember him as one of the most caring and vested teachers I have had the honor of teaching with.

Sincerely, Tim Eiseman
