Celebrating The Life Of Walter Hunter, Jr.:

Walter Hunter Jr. was born on August 13, 1941, in Detroit, Michigan to the blessed union of Marguerite and Walter Hunter Sr. they both preceded him in death.

Walter had a wonderful childhood. He attended Detroit Public Schools and graduated from Chadsey High School in 1959. After graduation he joined the U.S. Army where he proudly served our country and was honorably discharged in 1962. On October 18, 1962 he happily married the love of his life, Patricia. They have two beautiful daughters Rachel and Regina.

Walter was an extremely hard worker and always provided for his family. He worked on a coal truck and delivered laundry until he decided to go work for Chrysler, He was a proud UAW worker for the Lynch Road Plant and an alternate chief steward. He decided to leave Chrysler and joined the Board of Education where he worked as a supervisor until he retired.

Walter enjoyed going to the casino especially in Las Vegas, walking with his friends at Fairlane Mall, riding to Cleveland to see his sister Barbara and sitting "in the garage" talking smack with the guys. His best times were spent with his family especially the "Big Mac."

Walter was called home on December 18, 2017.
