“ My sympathy to the family. Mere words cannot convey the overwhelming feeling of disbelief that can result from the death of a loved one. When death strikes the pain can seem unbearable. God promises that the dead shall live again.-Isaiah 26:19

“ Please accept my condolences for the passing of your dear loved one. When someone we love dies, the heartache and grief can be great. I hope that you can be comforted knowing that God cares for you and sees your pain. (1 Peter 5:7)

“ To The Haynesworth Family,
I am so very sorry to hear of the passing of Wanda. I befriended Wanda back in 1983 when my cousin Robert stayed on Snowden. Her brother Tim and Robert were very good friends growing up and this is how I met Mrs. Haynesworth and the rest of the Haynesworth family. Tiff I know that you are missing your mom dearly but know that she's always right there in your heart to treasure her and the memories forever.

Gina and Michelle and the entire family I know this isn't easy for any of you and I'm praying that you will allow God to comfort you and keep you in your hour of sorrow. May you find peace in his presence.

Wanda your fight is over and you have won the race, well done thy good and faithful servant! For to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord!

Until we meet again, I love you.

God Bless,
Lynn Lipsey
