

Ms. Wanda Hopkins

April 30, 1957 - December 3, 2021

In Loving Memory Of:
Wanda AKA "Magic Wan"

On April 30, 1957, a beautiful woman, Wanda Hopkins was born in Detroit MI, to her loving parents Jesse Bowling Hopkins Sr. and Shirley Ann Hopkins who both preceded her in death. Wanda was blessed with a large and loving family where she was the third oldest of 11 children. Wanda attended Detroit Public Schools and American Red Cross Nursing Assistance Program. She held various jobs: Chrysler Automotive Manufacturer, Church's Chicken and Four Chaplains Nursing Home as a certified Nursing Assistant for a few years. She was baptized at an early age and always had faith in God always carrying her bible. Wanda had a passion for being creative, making clothes, crocheting, sewing, cooking, skating, dancing, bowling, swimming, tennis, volleyball, baseball, basketball, and track. She also loved to listen to her music everyday. She loved playing cards at the family gathering. Wanda loved family and dressing up, her appearance meant everything. She was a photogenic fashionista that loved taking pictures.

Although there are so many memories of Wanda, among the greatest are made with a longtime friend Edward Dumbar. Wanda Hopkins always said I love my Family, Edward Dumbar, Shawnetta and Jessica. Her daughters and grandchildren were her world, she always said always and forever.

Wanda leaves to cherish her memory mother Hilda Hopkins, two daughters Shawnetta and Jessica Hopkins. Seven grandchildren Aniya, Armonte, JaNasia, Jamie, E'Nari, De'Drea and Leonard Jr. Her siblings Mary Ann Robertson (Napoleon), Vuna Holliday, Jesse Hopkins Jr. -who preceded her in death (Cheryl), Howard Hopkins (Sujette), Rosella Ford, Nichole Wilkins, Frank Hopkins (Shannon), Omar Hopkins-Wilkins (China), Lee Wesley (Joyce), Joseph Chatten and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ Cousin Wanda you were that happy go lucky person that always wanted to keep everyone smiling and such a down to earth person. You have had some rough and trying times, but managed through the grace of God to keep pushing. You were always good to me and I will keep you close to my heart. See you when I get there! Cuz Dianne Burton.
