

Ms. Wanda Rollins

October 5, 1956 - August 3, 2024

In Loving Memory Of

Wanda Lee Louiselle was born October 5, 1956 in Detroit, Michigan to the late Arthur E. Braggs and Betty Adams. She was the only child. She attended Detroit Public Schools and graduated from Mackenzie High School. Wanda was introduced to Christ at a young age. Wanda served at Active Missionary Baptist Church until her health declined.

Wanda was a hard worker, she worked for Thorn Apple Valley for 15 years as a meat packer then went on to be a waitress/cashier at Mike's Coney Island for over a decade. She started doing transcription for the school system.

Wanda was a woman with many passions, but one of her greatest passions was spending time with her grandkids. She loved flowers and took great pride in caring for her garden. Wanda lived her life to the fullest in nearly 68 years of living. She experienced it all, love, marrying Mickel Rollins in 1976. To this union, two children were born, Michael and Ramone (KoKo).

Wanda became ill in March of 2024. Wanda made her transition on August 3, 2024, reuniting with her parents Arthur and Betty.

She leaves on earth to mourn, but forever cherish her memories; Nicole (sister), Michael, Ramone (Koko) Denzel, Keshawn, Ra'Niya, RaJanae, Edhen, and a host of other cousins and friends.

Although Wanda will be sorely missed, her light will continue to shine brightly through the memories of all those who knew and loved her.
