First off, I will always love you. I thank God for blessing me with a brother like you. I can't believe that you're no longer here. I'm going to miss talking about farming season. I know how much you enjoyed talking about that stuff. Overall, I'm just going to miss your fun personality. I know mom & dad was happy once you entered heaven. Until we meet again. I love you, always and forever big brother 💙

I'm still in disbelief that you're no longer here. Everyday my mom & I are trying to make peace with you gone. We're going to miss your smile and your larger than life personality. I know you are in heaven making grandma and the rest laughing. We love you and you will truly be missed 😭💔
