“The Lord created Mr. Wayne Noon to give Him glory. He was loving and compassionate toward others. He was a good listener and my best friend in the Lord. Wayne always prayed for others, even when he wasn't feeling well. I am grateful for his Christian witness, and he exemplified Christ at all times. I will miss our times of fellowship and prayer. We saw many miracles through our prayers. God is good, and He makes no mistakes. I thank the Lord for the Noon, Nash, Clarke, and Click families and the Tabernacle Missionary Baptist Church. tmbcdetroit.org We are keeping you in our thoughts and prayers. With Love to All, Sister Valerie, Brother Rahim, Mother Rebecca and the Lockridge Family.

“ Uncle Wayne was one of the sweetest persons you’d ever want to meet. He was friendly, loving, giving and funny. He loved to sing baritone (especially gospel songs) and eat good food. I loved his kind spirit, big hugs and warm smile. Even though we will miss him dearly, we know that God prepared a place for him and he is safe in heaven. Farewell Uncle Wayne. We already miss you.

“ I will miss my Uncle Wayne very much. He loved life... good food, dancing, sense of humor, traveling, and fervent prayer. He was surrounded by love and family during his final days and was surly welcomed by the same after his transition. My heart hurts and smiles at the same time 💔 Pam
