

Mr. Wendell Ross Lindsey

August 30, 1967 - December 18, 2017

Celebrating The Life Of Wendell Ross Lindsey:

Wendell Ross Lindsey was born on August 30, 1967 in Detroit, Michigan to the parents of Carolyn and James Lindsey. Both have preceded him in death. He accepted Christ at an early age as a member of True Love Missionary Baptist Church.

His Special Aunt, Ethel "Betty" McSwain-Willis accepted the responsibility of raising him and his sister after the death of their parents along with her two sons; Christopher and Kevin with help from her husband, Mr. Duncan Willis.

Wendell attended Detroit Public Schools throughout his youth, eventually graduating from Mackenzie High School, where he played football and acquired the nickname "Earthquake." After high school, he attended Ferris State University where he received a Bachelors Degree in Communications. Wendell married, and to that union his beautiful daughter Ashlee Carolyn Lindsey was born on February 6, 2005.

Sports, music and laughter were some of the many things he loved. He was an avid golfer and attended many golf outings as a form of enjoyment and relaxation. As far as music, it has been said that Al Green must be related to Wendell because every time you turned around he was playing one of his many hits, "Love and Happiness," "Tired of Being Alone" and "Let's Stay Together” just to name a few. Wendell and his sister had a bond like no other. One of the last things he told Lanya was, “I just want to talk to my baby sister and laugh like we used to...” His nephews were always a beacon of joy for him. Unbeknownst to Devin and Derrin, they would spend the last few hours of Wendell's life doing what he loved to do best, laughing and cracking jokes. He loved his family and friends through all the ups and downs, tears and laughter.

And though he had many loves, the love he had for his daughter was the greatest one of all.

On December 18, 2017, Wendell made his transition from this life into eternity.
