“ To you Dad, Thank you for your lifelong gift of reading. I still carry a precious childhood memory of sitting at your knee sharing your Sunday paper. You handed me the colorful and funny parts while you read the news part.

You instilled in me a love of books and stories, not just by reading to me but by reading with me. I can still see you beside me quietly reading, inspiring me to read, explore and try to understand. Back then, if a disagreeable situation came up, your words to me then still echo in my heart; “One day, you’ll understand”. With Love, Wesley Jr.
